

HAN/754/Edu/2022

The Embassy of India in Hanoi presents its compliments to the Vietnam Academy of Science and Technology of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam and has the honor to inform that the Government of India is offering 50 slots under the ASEAN India Research Training Fellowship (AIRTF) program for the year 2022-23.

The Embassy of India has further honor to inform that this Fellowship Program is a fully funded scheme, under which researchers from ASEAN Member States are selected to conduct research for a period of two (02) to six (06) months in Indian Institutions in all areas of Science and Technology. AIRTF Program Brochure is enclosed for ready reference.

The Embassy of India requests the esteemed Academy to disseminate the above information to all relevant individuals and institutions and encourage them for their participation at the program. Deadline for submission of online applications (at www.aistic.gov.in/ASEAN/aistdffellowship) for the Research Training Fellowship is 30th October 2022.

The Embassy of India in Hanoi avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Vietnam Academy of Science and Technology of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam the assurances of its highest consideration.
